BUILDING FAST AT HAWTHORNE.

The work of rebuilding the structures that were burned down at Hawthorne is being rushed along with a rapidity that will bring the grandstand and betting ring into a complete state before the bugle calls the horses to the post for the opening race of the next meeting of the Chicago Jockey Club. A force of nearly three hundred, of which half the number are carpenters, are working two hours a day overtime to bring this about. The new grandstand, although a single decker, will have a larger seating capacity than the old stand. Its length will be 396 feet and will contain eighteen rows of chairs, and this, after allowing space for aisles will seat in the neighborhood of six thousand persons. The dining room, bar, and lavatories have already reached a state of completion, and the builders are at present busily engaged in placing a roof over the stand. The betting ring, which will be under the north end of the stand, is almost finished, the exception being the floor, which will not be completed until after a considerable amount of grading has been done. Two teams are now steadily at work with large scoops hauling out large quantities of sand to make the ground level. When completed the betting ring will be much larger than the old one.

The paddock, which will not be built until after the next meeting, will be modeled on the lines of the one destroyed and will be situated fifty feet north of the betting ring. The failure to build the paddock in time for the next meeting will necessitate the secretary and jockeys occupying temporary quarters somewhere under the grandstand. The inability to have the paddock built was on account of scarcity of workmen, all the available force being used on the other structures. The judges' and timers' stands were practically uninjured by the fire and, beyond needing to be repainted, are as good as new. The association is doing its own building under the supervision of A. M. Allen and he positively announced that the grandstand and betting ring would be finished in time for the next meeting.

TWO DISQUALIFICATIONS.

The racing at Harlem yesterday was replete with excitement, which was furnished to the spectators by several close finishes and two disqualifications. The first setback occurred in the steeplechase, which was taken by Lord Farandole in handy fashion. It appears, however, that jockey Dolan, after taking the second jump, cut the flag a few feet to the inside of it, thus running out of the course and saving ground. Lord Farandole was much the best, fenced cleanly throughout and came away in the stretch with ease, winning by two and a half lengths from Bristol, which beat Dagmar fifteen for second place. Bristol was much the best of the others and ran to her best form. Dagmar tired fast after the seventh jump had been taken. Wenlock gradually dropped away beaten after showing well up to the sixth jump. Bristol was given the race, with Dagmar second and Scorpio third. The second disqualification occurred in the fourth race, which was taken by Jack Rattlin. He ran to his best form and, leading all the way, won easily. At the last sixteenth Beauchamp allowed him to swing in toward the inside rail, thus cutting off Bragg, which had to be pulled up. For this interference Jack Rattlin was set back, Bragg being placed first, Talpa second and Dr. Stephens third. Jack Rattlin showed much speed throughout the race and had the field well beaten when entering the last furlong. He won easily by a length from Bragg, which beat Talpa the same distance for second place. Dr. Stephens finished fourth. Talpa ran to her best form. She was pitched out of position after the barrier went up and lost some ground, which she recovered quickly when going down the backstretch. The mile was turned in 1:38 3/4, which is the fastest once around the circle made here this year.

Of a field of fourteen maidens that faced the barrier in the day's opener, a six furlongs dash. Tom Keene proved to be much the best. He suffered Jane Holly to run in the lead for the first four and a half furlongs and then easily took command, winning by a length from Lucy Locket, which beat Jane Holly two for second place. Lucy Locket finished strongly and was much the best of the others, Jane Holly was well beaten when a furlong from the wire. Belle of Bohemia ran well for five furlongs and bears watching from now on. Mackey is a good looking colt but appeared to be too high in flesh. He showed to advantage and will probably not remain a maiden long.

McChesney had to be much the best to win the second race, a dash of six and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Off last and badly cut off by Red Tip, which ran across him just as the barrier went up, he appeared to be badly beaten in the first quarter, but after that made up ground fast and, gradually picking up the field, closed with a rush, winning by a head from Joe Frey, which beat Hargis one length for second place. McChesney won easily, Buchanan purposely drawing a close finish. Joe Frey ran to his best form and will be a hard horse to beat from now on. Hargis showed speed, but tired palpably when the last sixteenth struggle came up. Theory, as usual, displayed keen speed, but she is faint-hearted and tires fast when strongly pressed. Zyra ran right to the mark. Rosa Diah was a keen contender for almost six furlongs and is due to win soon over a fast track when placed where she belongs.

Gypzene finally broke kindly in a race and, holding a contending position from the start, ran The Crisis into early submission and then came away easily, winning by a half length from Linguist, which beat Mirance one and one-half for second place. Linguist finished strongly, but Gypzene was simply too fast for him at the weights. Shooting Star showed scant speed and was never a serious contender.

An unwieldy field of fifteen faced the barrier in the last race, but Dwyer got the field off to an excellent start. Illuminate and Miracle II. ran in close company until the first half had been run, where Martin Bell moved up fast, took an easy command and was never afterward headed. She won by one length from Lingo, which beat Miracle II. two for second place. Illuminate fell away badly beaten after running well for five furlongs. Ultrada and Temper showed good races and bear watching from now on.

The largest gathering of the week was present and enjoyed an excellent day's sport. The track was lightning fast and good time was made in the different races. Lord Farandole ran the short course steeplechase in 3:31 1/2, which is two-fifths of a second faster than the track record which was established by Walter Cleary, August 4.

HERMIS IN GREAT FORM

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 8.—George J. Gould made an offer of $15,000 for Hermis after his great trial for the Travers Stakes. He worked Thursday, after the last race, a mile and a furlong in 1:54 flat, which was phenomenally fast, in view of the cuppy state of the going, which necessitated his taking the middle of the track, going wide on all the turns. Peter Wimmer, W. P. Burch, John Hyland, G. B. Morris, Julius Bauer and Tom Healy all had probable starters in the same event and were interested spectators of the trial and all agreed that the son of Hermence had the race at his mercy. By winning the historic Travers Stakes with Hermis, Mr. Gould would make a brilliant debut on the American turf.

The president's daughter, Miss Alice Roosevelt, will be here Saturday, August 23, to see the running for the Saratoga Cup, Winnie O'Connor was suspended four days and Winner—Ch. g. by Jim Gore or Order—Highland Love (trained by G. Walker). Went to post at 2:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Ordnung outclassed the field, particularly in the going, and led unextended throughout. Brandy Smash, favored by the mud, closed a big gap and finished fast. King's Favorite ran in unexpectedly game fashion. Ben Howard, away badly, made up a lot of ground. Irene Lindsey was prominent to the stretch turn and being interfered with fell back and came again. Satirist was going strongly at the end. Plum Tart went very wide at the turns and finished well. Malden failed right at the end from following the winner's pace closely. Scratched—(33991) Delmarch, 121; 33952 Clorita, 110; 34139 Hans Wagner, 105; 33836 Early Eve, 103; 34067 Rappenecker, 102; 33683 The Pride of Surrey, 95. Ordnung, show, 2 to 5. Brandy Smash, show, 6 to 1. King's Favorite, show, 12 to 1. Irene Lindsey, show, 4 to 5. Malden, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Meddler—Sunnyside (trained by J. E. Madden). Went to post at 2:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Morningside, leading under restraint and easing up in the stretch, was unexpectedly brought to a mild drive at the end to stand off Caughnawaga. The latter hung on with bulldog tenacity and ran a particularly fine race in going not to his liking. Lancerman, which cannot run well in mud, was hopelessly outrun from the start. Scratched—34117 Advance Guard, 126; 34141 Gunfire, 110; 34117 Ethics, 110; 28705 Baron Pepper, 107; 34168 The Rival, 96.

Winner—Ch. c. by Henry of Navarre—Ysult (trained by J. E. Madden). Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Yardarm spreadeagled his field, practically pulling up throughout and is probably a good class colt. Red Knight, strictly a mudlark, ran a speedy and game race, but was outclassed. Monte Carlo outstayed Captain Arnold in a hard final drive. The latter, evidently short, broke slowly and made up considerable ground, but tired right at the end, after being apparently sure of third place. Scottish Blue went well, but is of moderate calibre. Wheeler B. will improve. Old Fort is big and high, but a grand looker and probably a coming good one. Scratched—32942 Maxnie, 126; (33580) Dramatist, 117. Yardarm, show, 3 to 5. Red Knight, 9 to 10. Monte Carlo, show, 7 to 10. Captain Arnold, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Right Wild (trained by J. Burns). Went to post at 3:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Wild Pirate's speed was skillfully reserved and he made good in a brilliant stretch run. Conundrum was given a hustling and overanxious ride in an effort to beat Trump, which set a fast pace and quit in the stretch. Moor finished gamely. Leonid ran a very dull race and made an unexpectedly bad showing in the stretch. Honolulu and Early Eve both tired after essaying to cut out the pace. Scratched—(34189) Swiftmas, 114; 34213 Lancerman, 111; 34067 The Amazon, 108; (33537) Ohnet, 105; 33926 Mercer, 103; 33806 San Andres, 66; 34119 Frank McKee, 96. Wild Pirate, show, 1 to 10. The disqualification of Jack Rattlin cost owner Gorman $10,475. He bet $3,500 on the horse, getting an average of 13 to 5 for the money. He stated after the race that the judges were in a better position to see whether a foul had been committed, and, as they had seen fit to disqualify the horse, one must have been committed. But that Jack Rattlin was the better horse there can be no doubt, and to show that I have sufficient confidence in my horse to beat Bragg over again, the same conditions to govern, I will match Jack Rattlin against Bragg for $5,000, or as much more as the Bragg people would like to bet.

C. E. Mahone has sold to K. Weil the two-year-old filly Vestia for a reported price of $750.

Jockey T. Knight, who rode Red Tip, was fined $50 by the judges after the second race on complaint of starter Dwyer that he had cut across the field at the start, interfering with McChesney and Form.

Navillus, which started in the first race, was jumped on soon after the start and nearly had a tendon severed in one of his hind legs. The mishap will in all probability unfit him for racing purposes in future.

Secretary Nathanson had 113 entries thrust upon him with which to make up today's card. Twenty-one of the above number will have preference the next time entered.

G. R. Tompkins has purchased at private terms from H. E. Rowell the horse Lavator.

Jockey Beauchamp was fined $100 by the judges after the fourth race for fouling Bragg.

J. S. Bratton's timbertopper Teller, which is entered in the Golf Steeplechase, to be run Monday, arrived from St. Louis yesterday.

RUSTIC GIRL DISQUALIFIED.

DETROIT, MICH., August 8.—The purse won by Rustic Girl on Wednesday was taken away and given to Maple on account of A. Hall, the trainer of Rustic Girl, "not having" a Western Jockey Club license.

Disqualified; short of weight. 2 1/2 pounds.

Time, 12%, 25%, 50%, 1:05%, 1:12%.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Flirt (trained by F. H. Milden, Jr.).
Went to post at 4:05. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second handily. Scoffer was probably best, put up a fast and thoroughly game race and can beat better ones. Nevermore, which came up with a rush in the last quarter, was outgamed in a hard final drive by the winner, and weighed in two and a half pounds short and was disqualified. Catechise finished strongly but can do better when track conditions suit him. Sweet Alice was favored by the mud. Guy Park, is better than this race indicates. Fullback and Figardon closed up much ground. Mount Kisco had no chance with his ride, and was hopelessly pocketed in the stretch. Elliott is very highly tried but was unable to stride freely in the going.

Scratched—33778 Merry England, 114; 34138 Grantsdale, 114; 34140 Mr. Dingle, 114; 34140 Michaelmas, 114; 34164 Amariyllis, 111; 34065 Erorra, 111; Mansard, 111; 34086 Virgin Soil, 111; 34040 Love Note, 111. Scoffer, show, 10 to 1. Catechise, show, 2 to 1. Sweet Alice, show, 7 to 1. Elliott, show, 3 to 5.

34216 SIXTH RACE—1 Mile. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. m. by Perblaise—Ondina (trained by P. Ryan).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Roxane forced the pace for the first quarter, closely followed by Gunfire whose rider grew impatient and drove into the lead and was eventually worn down at the end by the winner, which received a skillful, patient ride and made good with a strong stretch run, and won going away. Gunfire tired in the going and can do better on a fast track. Huntressa finished very strongly through the last quarter and is evidently a superior mudlark. Douro, a rater and proved stayer, can win cup races and was evidently short. Barouche made up ground in the last half. Stevedore tired badly after going a good half.

Scratched—(34139) Zoroaster, 116; 34214 Conundrum, 108; (33537) Ohnet, 108; 34114 Maud Gonne, 106; 34141 Lux Casta, 96; 33921 Torchlight, 96.

Tom Keene, 7-1; Gypzene, 7-1; Bragg, 4-5;

were the good things our patrons received Friday. Tom Keene was our advertised extra special good thing. We advised all patrons to play Joe Frey straight and place.

A FEW QUESTIONS:

Did You Pick Them Any Better Yourself? Did Any One Else You Know Pick Them Better?

Did We Give You a Full Dollar's Worth.

Some sensational plays at Harlem today will crown our work if the track stays fast.

TODAY AT HARLEM

our extra special good thing at 20 TO 1 starts. This one is in great form, will have a good rider up and should win sure. As was the case with Tom Keene, 7 to 1 won, this good thing the handicapper, bookmaker and public will overlook entirely and the only one who will bet on him will be our patrons. That they will cash, we are fully convinced, and their winnings can be strung along on two others which can only be beaten by an accident. This is an opportunity that does not occur more than once or twice a year and those who take advantage of it will win hundreds of dollars. To every man and woman who is a loser on the season, we extend a cordial invitation to join our army of winners today. We have the winners to deliver in prime shape and those who do not get our wire will be the losers.

Form Letter on Harlem and Saratoga Printed, Ready at 9 a.m.

Winner—B. c. by Inspector B.—Ogarita (trained by J. S. Ward).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Tom Keene was much the best, ran like a stayer and came away easily when called on in the last eighth. Lucy Locket finished strongly and was the best of the others. Jane Holly showed speed but is seemingly faint hearted and tired fast when the pinch came. Mackey is a good looking colt, but appeared high in flesh. Frank Mc made up ground in the last quarter and was running fast at the end. Belle of Bohemia showed early speed. Navillus was cut down badly soon after the start.
Corrected weights—Belle of Bohemia, 112; Marshalsea, 114.
Tom Keene, show, 6 to 5. Lucy Locket, show, 4 to 5. Jane Holly, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. c. by Macduff—Manola Mason (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. McChesney had to be a good colt to win. He was last when leaving the post and appeared to be badly beaten in the first quarter, but picked up the field rapidly thereafter and finished strongly. Buchanan purposely drawing a fine finish. Joe Frey showed marked improvement and ran to his best form. He finished with great determination. Hargis showed speed but was well beaten when a furlong out. Rosa Diah was right there for five and a half furlongs and bears watching. Theory as usual showed much speed but is faint-hearted.
Overweights—Red Tip, 1 pound.
McChesney, show, out. Joe Frey, show, 3 to 5. Hargis, show, 3 to 5.

34207 THIRD RACE—Short Course. Purse $500; $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Steeplechase.

Time, 3:31½.

Disqualified for going out of course.
Winner—B. m. by Wadsworth—Buckra mare (trained by M. J. Brennan).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lord Farandole was much the best, jumped cleverly throughout and was never fully extended. He took a short cut after taking the second jump, going out of the course. For this he was disqualified. Bristol was easily the best of the others. Dagmar tired fast after the seventh jump. Scorprio lost ground at each jump and ran far below his last good performance. Wenlock ceased to be a sharp contender after the seventh jump.
Scratched—34158 Corrallo, 132.
Overweights—Scorprio, 1 pound; Icen, 3.

Disqualified for foul.
Winner—B. c. by Siddartha—Cantatrice (trained by J. Curl).
Went to post at 4:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Jack Rattilin ran to his best form, showed much speed and won pretty much as his rider pleased. In the last sixteenth Jack Rattilin swung into the rail, cutting off Bragg, which had to be pulled up. For this he was disqualified. Bragg was under keen punishment all through the last eighth. Talpa was squeezed out of position just after the start and lost ground. She made it up down the backstretch and finished strongly. Dr. Stephens showed early speed and ran his race. Gonfalon tired fast after showing well for six furlongs.
Corrected weights—Jack Rattilin, 99.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Gypzene finally broke with the field and after running The Crisis into early submission, came away without much trouble. Linguist finished fast under a vigorous ride, but was not quite good enough. Mirance tired fast in the last furlong. Shooting Star showed scant speed and was never a serious contender. The Crisis had early speed and ran well for a half mile.

Winner—B. f. by Oddfellow—Chauntress (trained by C. Lind).
Went to post at 5:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Matin Bell, always well up, came away handily in the last quarter and won as her rider pleased. Lingo outstayed Miracle II. in the last eighth struggle. The latter was tiring fast at the end. Ultruda finished strongly and will bear watching. Temper ran an impressive race, making up much ground in the final quarter. Illuminat fell away beaten after showing speed for a half mile.

Went to post at 2:34. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Avoid was under restraint to the last hundred yards, then came away leisurely. Goudy closed well. Ed Ball ran a good race under a wretched ride. Chappy was short. Flash of Night was weakly ridden and had gone back in speed. The Advocate ran a good race under a very weak ride. Sinner Simon was a very warm tip. He is a big colt, broke slowly and had no speed at any part of it.

*Apprentice allowance.
Time. 24.49 1-10.

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 24, 49.1, 1:10. Winner—B. g. by Bermuda—Catharine of Navarre (trained by J. J. Marklein). Went to post at 5:00. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second the same. John J. Regan and Dumont fought it out all the way and Steele outdrew Wainwright when it came to a drive. Wainwright was but little help to Dumont and the latter should have won as the race was run. Hallucination was the best, but Preston tried to take her through next to the rail when coming into the stretch and got out off and had to pull up and go around. Spinnet seemingly lacked speed and made a poor showing. Caelana went to his knees when the barrier went up, losing his rider. John J. Regan, show, 7 to 5. Hallucination, show, out. Spinnet, show, out.

34228 SIXTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 2:41, 49.1, 1:15. Winner—Ch. c. by Atheling—Ulsie (trained by E. Peters). Went to post at 5:32. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Aden wore Circus Girl down in the run home, caught her at the sixteenth post and outgamed her when it came to a drive, and Howell put it all over Wainwright when it came to a finish. Circus Girl showed the most early speed and should have won. Miss Chapman was off flatfooted and went all around her field and closed a big gap. Binehelio came with a rush at the end and was catching the leaders at every stride. Julia Junkin showed little speed. Overweights—Julia Junkin, 2 pounds. Aden, show, 8 to 5. Circus Girl, show, 2 to 1. Miss Chapman, show, 4 to 5. Axares, show, 1 to 2. Binehelio, show, out. Julia Junkin, show, 4 to 5.
